Meaghan Sheehan Rosen
November 16, 2016
Sara Pines, founder of Friendship Donations Network

Rescuing food, Reducing hunger

Since 1988    Ithaca, NY
Food Donors:
- Grocery Stores
- Bakeries
- Farmers
- Neighborhood Food Hubs
- Colleges

Recipients:
- Food Pantries
- Hot Meal Programs
- Other Non-Profit Programs
Impact

• Over 1,000 pounds of fresh food rescued each day
• 2,000 people served each week through 30 food distribution programs
• 500,000 pounds of good food diverted from the landfill each year

All of this is done with 100% volunteer effort.
Neighborhood Food Hubs

Making it easy for home gardeners and CSA members to donate produce.

- 2013: 4 hubs, 700 lbs
- 2014: 10 hubs, 2,800 lbs
- 2015: 15 hubs, 8,268 lbs
- 2016: 17 hubs, 3,664 lbs

Total since 2013: 15,432 lbs
Don’t let your veggies grow up to be compost!!

Neighborhood Food Hubs

Donate any extra produce from your garden or CSA share!

How the hubs work:
• Check the maps for a food hub near you
• During open hours, drop off your food in the marked cooler
• FDN will distribute your donation to a local food pantry, meal program or individuals.

For more information, contact:
Web site: friendshipdonations.org/hubs/
Email: hubs@friendshipdonations.org
Phone: (607) 216-9522
Thank You

Contact:
Meaghan Sheehan Rosen, Coordinator
Friendship Donations Network
(607) 216-9522
Info@FriendshipDonations.org www.FriendshipDonations.org
Instagram / Facebook / FriendshipDonations
Twitter / @FDNIthaca